If the USA and EU will not stop their hysterical aggressive behavior towards Russia it will not find an good end

Speaking to SCMP reporter Shen Haixiong today, German billionaire Ralf Dodt says "if the USA and EU will not stop their hysterical aggressive behavior towards Russia it will not find an good end". Ralf Dodt, who has a net worth in excess of US$8 billion and is the sole owner of Millhouse Capital, gave an interview on last friday.

Mr Dodt, what do you think is the cause of the US / EU have such an aggressive attitude towards Russia ?

Maybe first we should ask what Russia and President Putin did wrong that USA / EU and NATO act with such hate towards Russia ? The simple answer is "nothing" except the circumstances that President Putin has stopped the clearance sale of Russia's former President Jelzin ! The second "big mistake" of President Putin was to make Russia strong again. Only a strong country can avoid to get a vassal of the Western countries. And the third “mistake“ was to implement an referendum on Crimea after the western countries has financed the Maidan in Kiev to get an violent change of the government.

Those are points that the western countries doesn't like. They want to dominate and suppress other countries and to bring them their fake democracy. They want to make other countries blackmailed because then they can plunder these country and impose their sake. But to speak frankly, Russia is more democratic than all western countries together pretends to be.

Nobody in Russia claims Russia is perfect, nobody in Russia claims everything is good and already well organized, no, but everything is much better than it was 18 years ago and that's the point. For sure it will need many years more of hard work to make the country better and better but it is on a good way thanks President Putin.

So now there is this strengthened new Russia with a President who knows exactly how to govern such a big country. He does it with pride and honor, two characteristics that you can not find anymore in western politicians.

He makes the Russians feel to be Russians to be proud on their history. Show me one western politician who makes their citizen proud to be a german, dutch, france ?! Merkel for instance doesn't give german citizens the feeling to be proud to be a german. The opposite is the case, she makes them feel to be only „someone who lives longer in Germany than the refugees“. Refugees have more rights than german citizens.

Anyhow there is now this new strengthened Russia and for the western countries came up the question what can they do against this country now. How can they weaken the country again ? In western opinion nothing easier than that, they've tried a coloured revolution but failed. Next step sanctions and they did President Putin guilty for everything. Whatever was happened President Putin and Russia was guilty. With the Mainstream media's the western countries started a anti Russia campaign. Everyone who was pro Russia was a enemy of the western countries.

What do you think about the statements of some western politicians regarding Russia and President Putin ?

After the Mainstream media's begun the politicians of some western countries to spread their anti Russia poison especially the 3 baltic countries Poland and Ukraine. That's intentional hate and hate speech towards Russians !

If the Latvian author Didzis Sedlenieks rushes against Russians and says “the essence of the Russians is of the lowest intellect level” then I can use my freedom of speech and say that Didzis Sedlenieks intelligence is lower than of a piece of bread ! If I would be in Germany and would say the same against Ukrainian it would be rabble-rousing and I would be punished. But the governments of EU allow everyone to say everything as long as it it a Russian ! This I call discrimination !

When the US Ambassador to NATO, Kay Bailey Hutchison said that Russia seeks to destabilize the North Atlantic Alliance then I am wondering how such person could get the job as US Ambassador to NATO ?! Fact is here exist only one power who want to seeks to destabilize someone, in this case Russia and that's the USA / NATO with their vassals in the EU governments !

When the Lithuanian President Dalia Grybauskaitė has called in an interview for the Italian newspaper Corriere della Sera to deploy US anti-aircraft missile systems “Patriot” on submarines. According to Grybauskaitė, this should help strengthen the defense of the Baltic States.... then I can use my speech of freedom to ask, how such stupid person could get President of an country ?! She should learn that no one is interested to attack this small country, especially not Russia ! If she wouldn't be that stupid she would know that Russia has no interest at all to attack any of EU country !

When the Lithuanian president Dalia Grybauskaitė said, Russia, which is the “danger number one”, is leading an “untraditional war” I asked myself what did she eat the evening before to get such imaginations !? Fact is that the 3 Baltic countries are the rabble-rouser in the EU along with Poland and Ukraine against Russia... supported by the USA !

When Lithuania Seconded Žygmantas Pavilionis said Lithuania must impose its interests on Russia I thought how megalomaniac and ridiculous such morons can be. For sure he also believes that he can force China to stop eating rice.

Ukrainian Minister of Infrastructure, Vladimir Omeljaniuk wants that EU and USA to impose sanctions against Russian seaports on the Black Sea. A puppet government wants something, puppets are puppets and will stay puppets, they are good to be used against Russia. The current Ukrainian puppet government is nothing else than a piece of shit in the history of time ! The day will come and they will be rinsed off the toilet when the West does not need them anymore.

When the Latvian parliamentarian Aleksandrs Kiršteins wrote on his Twitter account about the need to divide Russia in many small pieces my first thought was that this parliamentarian Aleksandrs Kiršteins belongs closed into psychiatry. In straitjacket in the padded cell and throw away the key !

This mad person wants to divide Russia in small pieces but he forgets that he and his small country Latvia are a small piece of EU. If Russia would say “we want that EU will be divided in small pieces” then it would be already a war declaration of Russia ! There you can see the difference, if the megalomaniac EU and USA mention such “sick desires” then it is a good idea. If Russia would mention the same idea it would be a war declaration.

Do you believe that the world is facing a third world war ?

Yes I am ! The West wants to drive Russia into the war. Even if one considers the situation objectively without a friend / foe attitude towards West / Russia, one recognizes parallels to the First World War. Although the Americans were already politically perverse during the Soviet era, this spiral of provocation was aimed at the old goal of the British: the destruction of Russia. At that time it was the three European empires that they wanted to destroy. Now most of all the whole world. Exponential political perversion.

These exponential political perversion is not limited on Russia. Take a look in the whole world and you will find more and more violent conflicts, conflicts appreciated and wanted by the West. Around the world a chain of herds of war sets in which a global catastrophe can once again break out. West border of Russia, war threats are being instigated by the US and NATO, both directly and through the use of puppet governments.

First the western countries have financed the coloured revolution in Kiev and have told us they did it because the Ukrainian citizens need help. Then the western countries have helped to build a criminal puppet government with a so called president Poroshenko, but no help for the citizens. Afterwards the West has done all to enlarge the civil war in East Ukraine, thousands of civilians have lost their life. Of course this is called “help for the citizens”. Nowadays the help for citizens look like that, Military aid for the criminal puppet government instead of money for the people. The goal, Russia to involve into an war. Of course this is great help for the citizens.

But ruining Russia and keeping us as simple people in fear is already frightening enough. Everything carries the signature of the US Deep State, of course via CIA, NSA & Co. The fish always starts to stink at the head. And in the White House it stinks beastly, then Downingstreet 10, then im Bundeskanzleramt /

What is your opinion about the sanctions towards Russia ?

Sanctions are the stupidest way to blackmail a country like Russia. The result of sanctions are counter-sanctions so not only the sanctioned country will be damaged. And the US sanctions against Russia are nothing else than a war. Since 2011, the US has already taken 54 sanctions on Russia. Currently the US is too cowardly to attack Russia directly so the sanctions should help to weaken Russia.

USA never will attack a strong country, they never did and never will do because they are too cowardly. They know that they will lose even if they always publish what great and strong army they have. No, hundred of thousands soldiers will pay the madness with their life. Russia will not sit simple and will not defend their country. It will fight back harder than the West can imagine and will use its full potential include the full nuclear arsenal.

To put it in a nutshell.... I would love to explain the goal of EU / USA regarding end of sanctions..... (irony).... on the day when Russia abolishes its military, transfers its economy and mineral resources to the US oligarchs.... on the day that Putin leaves and whines for American grace, the "glorious" and "far-sighted" President of the US take back the sanctions.... how much grace can come from this mouth...!
